

Follow Your Courageous Heart

Courageous Life Vision

What if you solved every concern over the things that are stopping you? If you could trust that the money was going to show up, that you could learn what you needed to learn and you were smart enough and capable enough to do what you wanted to do?

IMAGINE there was plenty of time and you had the support and the courage to take the next steps. What would LIVING THE LIFE of your heart's desires look like? Take a moment to heartmap. Write down all the words you feel when you imagine it (i.e. inspired, happy, excited, free, etc)
